

[Van Horne, Dudley M.]

DUDLEY M. VAN HORNE

The funeral of Dudley M. Van Horne of 41 Laurel avenue was held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at DeMunn's Funeral Home at 176 Court street. Burial was in the family plot at Van Hornesville. The Rev. H. W. Haynes, pastor of the First Universalist church conducted the services and the pallbearers, all of whom were associated with Mr. Van Horne in business, were M. O. Wilson, Donald O. Wilson and F. C. Daniels of Binghamton and F. S. Deyo, Angus D. Smith and Paul Chantler of Waverly.

Mr. Van Horne was a member of the sales organization of the Empire Grain and Elevator Co., formerly of this city, and the firms in the consolidation of the Tioga Empire Feed Mills, Inc., for a continuous period of 24 years and received the 20-year award four years ago. Executives and members of the sales organization attended the funeral.

He was also a life-long member of Parlor City Council of United Commercial Travelers, which was represented by a delegation. As a member of Evergreen Lodge, F. & A. M., of Springfield Center, the rites at the burial service at Van Hornesville were conducted by the Masons.
