

[Van Sickler, Seymour]

S. Van Sickler, Aged 64, Passes
Had Been Seriously Ill Ten Days, Born in Town of J'town

Seymour Van Sickler, aged 64, well known lifelong resident of this city, died at his home, 117 South Melcher street, this morning at 4.

Because of failing health he was forced to give up his work the latter part of June, and had been seriously ill for the past 10 days.

Mr. Van Sickler was born in the Town of Johnstown, near Union avenue, February 19, 1884, the son of Gross and Barbara (Button) Van Sickler.

He was a glove worker by trade and had been employed by Crescendo Glove Inc. for the past four years. He was a member of the Exempt Firemen's Association and an attendant of the Universalist church in Dolgeville.

The survivors are his wife, Bertha (Crocker) Van Sickler; one sister, Mrs. Fannie Smith, and two nieces, all of this city.

Friends may call at the family home this evening and tomorrow. The body will be removed to the Cole funeral home Thursday morning and the funeral will be held there in the afternoon at 2.

Rev. Clinton Moulton, pastor of the Universalist church in Dolgeville, will officiate, and burial will be made in Fern Dale cemetery.

The Leader-Republican, Gloversville and Johnstown NY, Tue. 20 Jul 1948