

[Van de Mark, Evelyn C.]

E. C. Van de Mark, O.E.S. Historian

Funeral services for Evelyn C. Van de Mark, 27, who died Sunday in her home, 1829 Marine Parkway, will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in All Souls Universalist Church, Ocean and Ditmas Aves. The Rev. Dr. Cornelius Greenway, pastor, will officiate. There also will be Eastern Star rites. Burial will be in Maple Grove Cemetery.

Miss Van de Mark, a lifelong Brooklyn resident, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton K. Van de Mark and was a graduate of Public School 222 and James Madison High School. She was historian of Flatbush Chapter 177, Order of Eastern Star, and president of the Flatbush Triangle Girls.

She was a member of the office staff of Van de Mark & Co., 123 William St., Manhattan, which is owned by her father, who is past master of Central Lodge 361, F. & A.M., and past Monarch of Long I. Grotto.

Brooklyn Daily Eagle, New York NY, Tue. 10 Apr 1951

Transcribed on 24 Sep 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY