

[Vedder, Chloe E. Clark]

MRS. CHLOE E. VEDDER DIES

Well Known Member of Universalist Church Passes Away

Mrs. Chloe E. Vedder died yesterday morning at the home of her niece, Mrs. Minnie K. Vick, No. 209 Alexander street. Mrs. Vedder was a lifelong resident of this city. She was a member of the First Universalist Church, and up to the last two years had taken an active interest in the work of the church. Her devotion to her church work was one of her characteristics, and the loss of her support will be keenly felt.

Mrs. Vedder had gained some reputation as a writer of verse, and some of her verses, from time to time, were published in the Rochester newspapers.

The funeral will be held at No. 33 Chestnut street at 2:30 to-morrow afternoon. Burial will be made in Mount Hope Cemetery.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Tue. 5 Feb 1918

Transcribed on 1 Dec 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY