

[Vincent, John M.]

The funeral of John M. Vincent, the former well known restaurant keeper of lower Broadway, who died Monday morning at his home on Grand avenue, between this village and Baldwin, took place last Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Charles R. East, pastor of the Church of Good Tidings [Fourth Universalist], officiated and at the conclusion of the regular service, the Masons, members of Clinton Lodge, No. 453, with which Mr. Vincent affiliated, performed their burial rite. A widow and daughter survive.

Hempstead Sentinel, Hempstead NY, Thu. 4 Jul 1907

Transcribed on 27 Dec 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY