Loretta Sponburg Vosburg

After being ill for about ten days, Mrs. Loretta Vosburg was taken to the County Hospital where she died last Thursday night from the infirmities of age. She was born June 17, 1858, near this place, and her entire life had been spent here. Her husband died many years ago.

She leaves only one nephew, Raymond, who lived with her as a child, until he was married; he then went to Oneonta to live.

Her funeral was held Sunday from the Universalist church, the Rev. Charles Kramer officiating, with burial in the village cemetery.
