DEATH REMOVES OLD RESIDENT

Miss Kate A. Wagner, Aged 80, Stricken With Paralysis

Fort Plain—Miss Kate A. Wagner, aged 80 years, died late Saturday afternoon at the home of her niece, Mrs. Charles Rouse, on Reid street in this village. About two weeks ago Miss Wagner was stricken with paralysis and she had been in an unconscious condition ever since. She was born and had always resided here. Her parents were James H. Wagner and Katherine Young. Her many friends will sincerely regret her death. She was a devout member of the local Universalist Church. For many years the deceased followed the vocation of school teacher and taught in many districts in this town and vicinity. Besides the relative mentioned she is survived by one niece and two nephews, Mrs. Charles Stregkemper of Cleveland, O., Dewitt W. Geesler of East Syracuse and Lincoln A. Geesler of Cleveland, O. The funeral will be held from the Rouse home on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Thomas J. Farmer of Boston, Mass., officiating. The burial will be made in the Fort Plain Cemetery.
