

[Waldie, Flora M. Thurston]

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. F. WALDIE
Highly Esteemed Resident of Dolgeville Dies After Long Illness

DOLGEVILLE—Mrs. Flora M. Waldie died Wednesday at her home on Faville avenue after an extended illness from a complication of diseases. Mrs. Waldie had been confined to her bed for the past eight months. Deceased was born November 15, 1867 in Gloucester, Mass., her maiden name being Flora Thurston. In February, 1910, she was married to George Waldie, who died six years later. She taught school in her home town for 20 years, but lived in this village for many years, loved and esteemed by all who knew her.

Mrs. Waldie was a past matron and an honorary member of the Martha Washington chapter of the Eastern Star of Gloucester, which body she served as secretary for 15 years, and she was also a charter and honorary member of the Past Matron and Patrons' association of Massachusetts. Here she joined the Universalist church and was a member of the Ladies' Aid society.

She is survived by a daughter, Florence I. Waldie of this village; a brother, Howard L. Thurston and a sister, Mrs. Edward C. Currier, both of Gloucester; and a nephew, Charles W. Lane, Jr., who made his home with the deceased since the demise of his wife. Funeral services will be held this evening at 7:30 at the home and Saturday morning the remains will be taken to Gloucester for interment.

The Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Fri. 5 Aug 1932

Transcribed on 17 Dec 2015 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY