

[Waldron, Lina Robinson]

MRS. J. M. WALDRON EXPIRES, AGED 69

Mrs. Lina R. Waldron, 69, wife of James M. Waldron, McLean, died this morning in Cortland County Hospital after a lengthy illness.

She was born in McLean on Feb. 3, 1884, the daughter of Dr. Barzailli Robinson and Emily LaMott Robinson. Mrs. Waldron lived at McLean most of her life and was a member of the Rural Neighbors Club of McLean. She also was a member of the First Universalist Church of Cortland and the Dryden Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star. She was a former correspondent for the Cortland Standard.

Mrs. Waldron is survived by her husband; six daughters, Mrs. Paul Kelley of Seneca Falls, Mrs. Edward Gleason of Niagara Falls, Mrs. Paul Davenport of Yonkers, Mrs. Neil Wilson of Genoa, Ohio, Mrs. Donald Cosgrove of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio and Mrs. William Wagner of Saudi Arabia; also two sons, Ethan Waldron of Cortland and J. LeDru Waldron, McLean; three nieces and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Earle W. Wright Funeral Home. The Rev. Max Coots, pastor of the Universalist Church of Cortland will officiate. Interment will be in McLean.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday.

Cortland Standard, Cortland NY, Sat. 28 Nov 1953

Transcribed on 19 Oct 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY