

[Walker, Anne Vanderbilt]

Mrs. Anne Walker Dies; Native of Rotterdam

DOLGEVILLE—Mrs. Anne Vanderbilt Scanlon Walker, 78, of Dolgeville, died Saturday at the Little Falls Hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Walker was at one time part-owner of a Millinery Shop in Little Falls and later was owner and manager of Scanlon's restaurant in Dolgeville for 17 years until her retirement three years ago.

She was the widow of Leon Walker of Dolgeville.

She is survived by four nephews, Everett Connor of Dolgeville, James Evans of Pattersonville, Alexander Evans of Rotterdam, and Andrew Vanderbilt of Vestal; four nieces, Mrs. Kathryn Murphy of Rotterdam, Mrs. Anne Dunlap of Schenectady, Mrs. Maude Coleman of Watervliet, and Mrs. Eleanor Sisto of Amherst, Mass.

The funeral service will be held at the Nielsen funeral home, Dolgeville, at 2 p.m. tomorrow. Rev. Charles O. Barber, pastor of the Universalist Church of Dolgeville, will officiate. The funeral home will be open this afternoon, this evening and tomorrow until the time of the service. Burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery, Little Falls.

Schenectady Gazette, Schenectady NY, Mon. 19 Sep 1966

Transcribed on 17 Mar 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY