

[Walker, Daisy A.]

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. WALKER, ILL 6 MONTHS

DOLGEVILLE—Mrs. Daisy A. Walker died at 5 Thursday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Duane Wright. Cause of death was complications following a period of six months' illness.

Mrs. Walker was born February 1, 1888 in Wellsville, N.Y., and had resided here since 1917.

Mrs. Walker was a member of the Universalist church, Auskerada Chapter, OES, past noble grand of Rising Crown Rebekah Lodge and a member of the Past Noble Grands Association.

On March 31, 1912 she was married to Leon Walker, who survives; also two daughters, Mrs. Duane Wright and Mrs. Walter Svirsky, both of Dolgeville and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held private Sunday afternoon at 2 from the home of the daughter on Snell street. Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton will officiate. Burial will be in the local cemetery.

Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Sat. 24 May 1947

Transcribed on 7 Jan 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY