

[Wall, Morton F.]

Morton F. Wall, the twenty-two-year old son of William H. Wall, died yesterday at his home, 73 Lee Avenue. Death was due to pneumonia which followed an attack of the grip [influenza]. Mr. Wall was a resident of the Nineteenth ward all his life. After being graduated from the public schools he entered the employ of the Corn Exchange Bank, in Manhattan. He was a member of All Souls' Universalist Church, in South Ninth Street, and for some time has been the treasurer of the Sunday school. His father, mother and one brother, Alfred D., survive him. The funeral services will be held tomorrow evening, the Rev. L. Ward Brigham, pastor of All Souls Church, officiating. Interment will be made in the family plot at Cypress Hills Cemetery.
