Newton B. Wallace

MIDDLEPORT, Jan. 21—Newton B. Wallace died Saturday night, at his late home of Vernon street. He is survived by a son, Bruce A. Wallace, and a grandson of Middleport, also a brother, George Wallace, of Yates Center.

Mr. Wallace was born July 23, 1841, in Livingston county, but has been a resident of this vicinity all of his life. He was one of Middleport's highly respected citizens.

The funeral will be held this afternoon from the late home, with burial at Hartland Central cemetery. The Rev. Charles C. Blauvelt, of the First Universalist church of Rochester, former pastor here, will officiate.
