

[Walrath, Anna Mae Zimmerman]

Mrs. Anna M. Zimmerman Walrath

Mrs. Anna M. Zimmerman Walrath, wife of the late Fred R. Walrath, died at her home Thursday, October 10 at 1:15 p.m. Mrs. Walrath was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Zimmerman who lived many years in Crum Creek and later moved on the river road near Fort Plain, where Mrs. Walrath resided the rest of her life.

Surviving are one son, Lester, who resides on the river road, and two daughters, Mrs. Frederick Paris¹ of Hallsville and Mrs. Albert Smith² of Crum Creek; also four grandchildren, George and Ada Margaret Paris of Hallsville, Harlin Smith of Crum Creek and Shirley Ann Walrath of Fort Plain R. D.³

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from her home on the river road at 2:30, the Rev. William R. Haney of the [Universalist] Church of the Messiah of Fort Plain officiating. During the very impressive services two hymns dearly loved by Mrs. Walrath were sung: "In the Sweet By and By" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."
