DEATH CLAIMS AGED RESIDENT

Henry Walster, 86, Former Town Collector of Taxes in Fort Plain Dies

FORT PLAIN—Henry Walster, 86, died Monday at the home of his son, Eugene Walster, on the Hill road from Fort Plain, from complications due to his age. He was a carpenter by trade. For many years he lived in the Valley Brook section of this town and had served as town collector of taxes. Mr. Walster was born February 23, 1845 in the town of Palatine, a son of Conrad and Caroline Heiser Walster. When one year old he moved to this town where he had since resided. He is survived by the son mentioned above, two granddaughters of Amsterdam and a sister.

The funeral services will be held at the home Thursday at 1:30 P.M. and 2 P.M. (standard time) from the Catherine Nellis Memorial Chapel, Rev. Rufus H. Dix, pastor of Fort Plain Universalist church officiating. Interment will be in the Fort Plain cemetery.
