MIDDLEPORT EX-MAYOR'S WIDOW DIES

MIDDLEPORT—Mrs. Sarah T. Walters, 86, widow of Norman S. Walters, mayor of Middleport from 1939 to 1942, died Wednesday (May 18, 1960) in Grand Haven Community Hospital in Michigan after an illness of three days. She had been visiting a son in nearby Spring Lake, Mich.

A former resident of Buffalo, she had lived in Middleport for 45 years. She was a member of the First Universalist Church here and an active worker in church societies. Her husband was a rural mail carrier from 1917 to 1939.

Fifteen years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Walters moved to Gaines, Orleans County. Since his death, 18 months ago, she had lived with her son, Roscoe Walters, in Lansing, Mich.

Survivors include two other sons, Allen Walters, Spring Lake, Mich., and Oro Walters, Garden City, L. I.; a daughter, Mrs. Rolland Fisher, Dearborn, Mich.; a sister, Mrs. Mae Wolfe, Gaines; 12 grandchildren and a great-grandson; also several nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at the Scharett-Mitchell Funeral Home, 21 West Ave., Albion, where services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, the Rev. Joseph Sullivan, D. D., of Pullman Universalist Church, Albion, officiating. Burial will be in Otter Creek Cemetery, near Gaines.
