

[Washburn, Lucia A. Lewis]

DEATH OF MRS. WASHBURN

The death of Lucia A. Washburn, wife of John R. Washburn, superintendent of the county poor, occurred Monday morning at the county poorhouse, where Mr. Washburn has his official residence. Mrs. Washburn was a daughter of Granson and Marab Lewis and was born in the town of Wilna, August 4, 1843. She was married to Mr. Washburn in 1864 and they lived in the town of Rodman until nineteen years ago, when they went to Watertown. During her residence there she was justly held in the highest esteem. She was a consistent member of the Universalist church, and until her failing health prevented was one of its active workers. She is survived by her husband, one son, Lewis R. Washburn of the National Union Bank of Watertown; a daughter, Mrs. John M. Cruikshank of Brooklyn; and a brother, C. R. Lewis of Oakland, Cal. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon.
