

[Weaver, Mable Bates]

Mrs. M. B. Weaver, Former Teacher, Dies L. F. Hospital

Mrs. Mable Bates Weaver passed away in the Little Falls hospital at 2:10 last Thursday morning. She had been ill for more than a year of complications. Mrs. Weaver was born at Jamesville, Onondaga County, on Sept. 2, 1898, the daughter of the late William Bates and Mrs. Emma Bishop Bates. She was married to Milo Weaver of St. Johnsville on March 28, 1923 at Jamesville. She was a member of St. Paul's Universalist church at Little Falls and Montgomery Rebekah Lodge of this village. Mrs. Weaver was a teacher in the St. Johnsville schools for five years, leaving here in 1923 to teach in the Little Falls schools. At first she taught the sixth grade, but later assumed charge of a coaching class.

Mrs. Weaver was endowed with the patience and understanding that help to promote high ideals in teaching and assistance to those students who find it difficult to learn as easily as others.

She was a graduate of the Jamesville schools and of Cortland Normal School.

Those who survive are her husband; her mother, Mrs. William Bates, and a sister, Mrs. L. R. Woodhull, of Fulton, N. Y.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon from the Newitt funeral home in Little Falls, with Rev. Howard B. Gilman, pastor of St. Paul's Universalist Church, officiating. Burial was made in the St. Johnsville Cemetery. Those attending the funeral from here were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. Robert March, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Smith, and Miss Carrie Kilts.

Members of Auskerade Lodge N. 814, I.O.O.F., and Montgomery Rebekah Lodge No. 118 visited the Newitt funeral home on Friday evening to pay their respects, and services were conducted by the Rebekahs. The deceased had been a member of the local Order for 32 years.

Enterprise and News, St. Johnsville NY, Wed. 20 Dec 1951