

[Webb, Wilmont Upson]

WILMONT U. WEBB

Bath—Wilmont Upson Webb, 63, died of heart disease at his home in Saranac Avenue, Buffalo, Monday. The body will be brought here for burial in Grove Cemetery Thursday. Mr. Webb was a native of Bath and passed his early life here, receiving his education under the late Dr. Levi D. Miller at Haverling Academy. He had been located more than 40 years in Buffalo where he was manager of an insurance company.

He married Belled Macduff by whom he is survived, with a son, Raymond, of the Federal Research Department in Washington.

He had long been prominent in the Buffalo Musical Society and he was also an officer of the First Universalist Church of that city. Mr. Webb is remembered by the older members of the Haverling Alumni Association. As a lad he was a violinist and later director of the first orchestra organized in the local school in 1890.

The Rev. Dwight W. Graham of St. Thomas Episcopal Church will officiate at his committal service.

Star-Gazette, Elmira NY, Tue.1 May 1934

Transcribed on 2 Nov 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY