

[Webster, Mary Coe]

Mrs. Anna Webster, Former Organist, Dies at 90

Catherine Kuder, Correspondent

Mrs. Anna Coe Webster, 90, native of Conesus and widow of John D. Webster, died Sunday night at the home of her son, George C. Webster, after about ten years of poor health. She had failed in health rapidly the past month.

Mrs. Webster was the daughter of George F. and Alta A. Coe. Her husband died in 1914 and since then she had made her home with her son.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 at the Conesus Community church, the Rev. Clara Morgan of Cohocton officiating. Burial was in Arnold cemetery, Conesus.

Mrs. Webster's only near survivor is the son and two grandchildren, Annis Webster of Conesus and Mrs. Anna Minisci of Gowanda; also two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Webster was the organist at the Universalist church in Conesus for about fifty years, before it became part of the Community church.

Lima Recorder, Lima NY, Thu. 28 Aug 1941

Transcribed on 14 Dec 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY