

[Weller, Floyd]

Floyd Weller, 69, Little Falls, Dies

LITTLE FALLS—Floyd T. Weller, 69, of 515 E. Lansing St., for 15 years a night watchman with the Cherry-Burrell Corp., retiring several years ago, died yesterday in his home after a long illness.

Born Feb. 6, 1895, in Little Falls, the son of Grant and Lizzie Tefft Weller, he married Agnes Redjives in 1940 in New Hartford. After his retirement as a night watchman, he became a Benton Hall school crossing guard until last December. He was organizer of the school safety patrols, composed of elementary school pupils. Interested in police work, he served as a special policeman and was a member of the Auxiliary Police, Call Firemen's Assn, and American Legion. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of St. Paul's Universalist Church. His wife survives; one sister, Mrs. Charles F. Phillips, Little Falls; several nieces, nephews and cousins. Rev. Robert Sterling, Universalist pastor, will conduct services at 2 p.m. tomorrow from the home of Mrs. Phillips, 599 Albany St. Burial will be in Church Street Cemetery. Calling hours are 7 to 9 tonight and 2 to 4 tomorrow at the Phillips Funeral Home.

Evening Telegram, Herkimer NY, Wed. 26 Feb 1964

Transcribed on 1 Feb 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY