

[Weller, Henry]

Henry Weller

The death of Harry Weller, after an illness of less than 24 hours, occurred at his home at Fort Plain yesterday. He was 23 years of age. The young man from boyhood had not been in the best of health. He attended the private school of Miss Devendorf and at the conclusion of his studies there was taken ill and confined to his bed till 1900, when he was taken to the Homeopathic hospital, Utica, where he was operated upon and benefited. A year later he came home and had since been engaged in law work with his father, Lester M. Weller. He is survived by his father, mother [Clara] and sister [Alice]. The funeral will be held at his late home Sunday at 3 p.m., the Rev. L. [Lewis] J. Richards officiating. The deceased was a Republican in politics and a member and officeholder in the Sunday school of the church of the Messiah [Universalist]. He was also a member of the Fort Plain club.
