

[Wells, Asahel]

DEATHS.

In Holley, April 3d, Mr. ASAHEL WELLS, in the 64th year of his age. He possessed his reason to the last, and expressed his willingness to live, or to die. He was a good man, benevolent and kind, and has left a companion and five children, with many friends and relatives to mourn his departure. May they be comforted with the bright hopes of the Gospel. The funeral was attended by a very respectable congregation, who assembled in the Baptist church, on the 5th ult., to whom the writer delivered "the words of truth and soberness." For this and other instances of noble generosity, the Baptists in Holley will receive the gratitude and thanks of the Universalist community.

C. H. [Rev. Charles Hammond]

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Fri. 12 May 1837
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 31 Aug 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY