

[Wentworth, Harry D.]

Death of Harry D. Wentworth After a Brief Illness

Nov. 21.—Harry D. Wentworth, after a few days' illness, died at the home of his parents, in this village, Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock, aged 34 years. Deceased had not been in good health for a number of months. About a week ago he was prostrated by a stroke of paralysis. He was a native of Fort Plain, where, with the exception of a few years, he had always resided. He is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas [and Harriet Shearer] Wentworth; four sisters, Mrs. Harry Glazier of San Francisco, Mrs. Edward McNeil of New York, Mrs. Edward L. Prince of Chicago, Mrs. Edwin W. Wood of Fort Plain; and two brothers, Howard of Fort Plain and Douglas of Syracuse. The funeral will be held from his late home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. L. J. Richards [Universalist] officiating.

Evening Recorder, Amsterdam NY, Thu. 21 Nov 1907

Transcribed on 24 Oct 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY