

[Wesley, Millie White]

NEWS OF MACEDON

Macedon, July 19—In the death of Mrs. Charles Wesley, which took place at her home in this village Friday morning, Macedon loses one of its most highly respected citizens. Millie White was born on August 18, 1864, and nearly her entire life has been spent in this town. She became the wife of Charles Wesley and to them one son was born. She was a loyal Universalist, always having the interest of her church at heart, and as long as health permitted was an untiring worker. She was also a member of Silver Spring Rebekah Lodge, holding the office of chaplain at the time of her death. She will be greatly missed, especially from the home circle where the husband and son are left alone. Besides the husband, Charles Wesley, and son, Sidney, she leaves one sister, Mrs. Fred Bills, of Fairport; one brother, Stephen White, of Macedon; one uncle, Friend Harp, of Syracuse; besides many nieces, nephews and cousins, as well as a host of friends. The funeral service took place on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from her late home and was conducted by Rev. Albert E. Allison, pastor of the Universalist church. Burial was made in the cemetery at Macedon Center.
