C. E. WESTON DIES SUDDENLY

Charles E. Weston, 52, for many years connected with both the manufacturing and sales departments of the H. H. Franklin Automobile Company, died suddenly early Sunday at his home, 221 Kenwood av. Mr. Weston had been in good health and was stricken after returning home from an evening spent out with friends.

He went with the H. H. Franklin Automobile Company about 20 years ago in the manufacturing department and advanced to post of departmental foreman. He was then selected for the sales staff and for the last three years had been connected with the E. M. O'Donnell Co., local dealers of the company.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Jennie Weston; one son, Henry Weston, and one brother, William Weston. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the family home with Rev. Frederick W. Betts [minister of First Universalist Church] officiating. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery.
