

[Wetherbee, Nicholas]

Obituary.

Nicholas Wetherbee was born at Stafford, Onondaga county, N. Y., December 14, 1832, and died at this place, Thursday, May 23. His parents came to this county when he was four years old and he always lived here. [On] March 16, 1862, he was united in marriage with Lydia Shearer. During their married life they have lived in the towns of Bolivar, Clarksville, Cuba and for the past eleven years in Friendship.

In his early years Mr. Wetherbee was engaged in the lumber business and later in farming, at which he was very successful.

A widow and four children are left to mourn his loss: I. B. of Clarksville, W. J. of Cuba, Edith and Cecil, of this place. Also five brothers and three sisters, all of this county, and a stepmother.

Funeral services were held at the house last Saturday at 10:30 a. m., Rev. E. Alice Bradley [Universalist] officiating assisted by Rev. D. J. Torrens. The funeral was largely attended by friends and relatives. Interment was at Maple Grove cemetery.

Allegany Republican, Friendship NY, Fri. 31 May 1901