

[Wetmore, Ada Lull Tobey]

MRS. ADA WETMORE

Mrs. Ada Wetmore, widow of Horace Wetmore, died at the family homestead near Filers' Corners, where she resided with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Halbert, Saturday morning, November 14th, at 7 o'clock, after a long period of ill health.

Ada (Lull) Wetmore, only daughter of Stephen and Lucy (Tilley) Tobey, was born April 29, 1861, in the town of Butternuts. When [she was] but a year old, the family moved to Morris township and here she passed her life, much of which was spent on the homestead which has been in the family for five generations.

[On] December 26, 1884, she married Horace O. Wetmore of Morris, who died in 1910. To them was born one child, Mrs. Howard [Celia] Halbert, who has been very devoted to her mother in her declining years.

Mrs. Wetmore had been a member of the Universalist church in Morris for many years. She was a woman of unfailing sympathy and kindness of heart and was ever ministering to the wants of others as long as health permitted. She leaves a host of friends.

Immediate surviving relatives are the daughter, two grandchildren, Anita and Ronald Halbert, and one niece, Mrs. Hugh Southern, all of Morris, to whom much sympathy will be extended.

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. F. G. Leonard of the Universalist church, were held at the family home Monday afternoon at 2:30, with interment in the family plot in the old part of Hillington cemetery.
