

[Wetmore, Elisha]

DEATHS.

In Paris, on the 3d inst.; Mr. ELISHA WETMORE, aged 77 years. The deceased was one of the first settlers in that section of the country; has left a good name, and was universally beloved and respected. An aged widow, eleven children, seventy-two grand children, and ten or more great grand children, mourn the loss of a valuable counsellor, and the community in which he resided, of an esteemed friend. The consolations of the Gospel were administered to the mourners and a numerous congregation of sympathising friends, in the Presbyterian church at Litchfield, on the 5th inst., by the writer.

T. J. W. [Thomas Jefferson Whitcomb]

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Fri. 14 Aug 1846
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 7 Oct 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY