

[Wheeler, Achsah M. Andrews]

John B. Wheeler

East Bloomfield, Dec. 11—John B. Wheeler, aged 78 years, died Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The funeral will be held from the family residence on Tuesday at 1 P.M., Rev. Geo. F. Babbitt, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Besides his wife [Achsah Andrews Wheeler] he leaves two sons, George A. Wheeler and James A. Wheeler.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Tue. 12 Dec 1911

40 Years Ago

The death of John B. Wheeler, a lifelong and highly respected resident of South Bloomfield, came peacefully Saturday night after a lingering illness due to the infirmities of old age. He was born 78 years ago on the very spot on which he died. He has always been held in the highest esteem by all who have known him. He leaves his wife, Achsah Andrews Wheeler; two sons, Jesse A. and George A. Wheeler, seven grandchildren¹ and three great-grandchildren.

Shortsville Enterprise, Shortsville NY, Thu. 13 Dec 1951

Transcribed on 6 Jan 2019 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY

¹ [including, with their adult names, Mrs. Bessie Cooper, Mrs. Oscar B. Johnson, Mrs. Percy H. Pettit and Mrs. Floyd D. Butler, all of Canandaigua, and Mrs. H. S. Freeman of Rochester]