

[Whipple, Samuel]

Samuel, son of David and Johanna (Jones) Whipple, was born in Duanesburg, New York, February 10, 1798, died September 20, 1858, and is buried in the cemetery at Clarkson, Monroe county, New York. He was but a lad when his father moved to Pennsylvania, where Samuel continued his residence for many years. Later in life he moved to New York state, purchasing a farm north of Clarkson, Monroe county, on which he resided until his death. He was a Universalist in religious faith, a man of industrious habits and upright character. He married, October 29, 1819 Phoebe Cleveland, born August 11, 1796; died October 18, 1878 at Clarkson. Children: [1] John, born January 25, 1821; [2] Annis, September 18, 1822; [3] Sarah, January 15, 1824, married Orville Hobart of Michigan; [4] Zadie, December 24, 1825; [5] William (born near Montrose, Pennsylvania, October 6, 1827, died in Orleans county, New York; married April 5, 1858 Catherine M., born February 27, 1836, died September 8, 1902, daughter of William H. and Catherine Barr Watson); [6] Job, September 12, 1829; [7] James, October 16, 1831; [8] Elias, May 15, 1833; [9] Rufus, July 4, 1835; [10] Emily, September 5, 1837; [11 and 12] Eleanor [and Gardner, twins] October 14, 1838; [13] Edwin, December 29, 1842.

William Richard Cutter, Genealogical and Family History of Central New York (New York: Lewis Historical Publishing Co., 1912) I: 449