

[White, Arthur C.]

ARTHUR C. WHITE

Death of A Pembroke Young Man From Quick Consumption at Age of 32

Pembroke, April 26.—Arthur C. White died at his home south of this village yesterday from quick consumption. His illness started with an attack of pneumonia last winter.

Mr. White was born in this town on October 14, 1874. He was married to Miss Myrtle Potter of Indian Falls on September 9, 1899. He is survived besides his wife by a daughter, Rose, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. White of this place, and two sisters, Mrs. Fred Lewis and Mrs. Patsey McNiff of Akron.

The funeral will be held from the family home on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the Rev. Harry M. Wright [Universalist] of Corfu officiating.

The Daily News, Batavia NY, Fri. 26 Apr 1907

Transcribed on 11 Dec 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY