Mrs. Nellie Averill, wife of Henry Kirke White, died at Ft. Atkinson, Wis., on Oct. 1, after a severe and protracted illness. Mr. White was the pastor of the Universalist Church in Rome a number of years ago, and Mrs. White is well remembered here as a lovable Christian woman. The news of her death will bring sorrow to many hearts and a large circle of friends will sincerely sympathize with Mr. White in his affliction. Besides her husband Mrs. White leaves three children.
