

[Whitfield, Humphrey P.]

DIED IN SCIPIO

Humphrey P. Whitfield, an old resident of Scipio, died at his home Wednesday afternoon at the age of 70 years, after an illness of two months. Mr. Whitfield was a son of Captain George Whitfield, an old seaman and whaler. The house in which he lived in Scipio contains some curious relics of early sea-faring days. Besides a wife and daughter deceased leaves a sister, Mrs. Charles Goodrich, of Rochester, and a brother, Charles T. Whitfield, of Weedsport. The funeral services will be held in the Universalist church in Scipio Center this afternoon. Burial will be in the Scipio cemetery.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Fri. 24 Sep 1897

Transcribed on 10 Mar 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY