

[Whitney, Amanda Malvina Holmes]

MRS. FRANK WHITNEY

Her Death From Heart Disease After a Three Weeks' Illness

Mrs. Amanda M. Whitney, widow of Frank Whitney, died at her home, No. 24 Wood street, at 8:25 o'clock last night from heart disease. She had been confined to her bed about three weeks. Mrs. Whitney was born at Portageville on January 23, 1840, and had lived at Le Roy many years before moving to Batavia about six years ago. Her husband died at Gainesville about fifty years ago. She was a woman of kindly temperament and took pleasure in serving others. She is survived by a son, Frank O. Whitney of Seattle, Wash.; two daughters, Mrs. Ina W. Robinson of Batavia and Mrs. William Mankin of Arlington Heights, Ill., and besides Mrs. Robert E. Cooley of Batavia, by six other grandchildren and several great-grandchildren, and a brother, Orlando Holmes of Stevens Point, Wis. The funeral will be held from her late home at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, the Rev. Clara E. Morgan, pastor of the Universalist church of Perry, officiating, and the interment will be in the Machpelah cemetery at Le Roy.

The Daily News, Batavia NY, Fri. 8 Jun 1917

Transcribed on 16 Oct 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY