

[Whitney, Blanche Adams]

HENDERSON

On Saturday, Blanche, wife of Lee M. Whitney, after an illness of seven weeks, heard the summons which comes to all, sooner or later, and passed on through the portals which never swing backward. She had made many friends in her short sojourn among us, for to know her was to love her. She was a member of the Universalist church and had the interest of church and Sunday school always in mind and was an earnest worker in both. She will be greatly missed in the church and in her home where she was a devoted wife and mother. The funeral was held from her late home Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Metz conducting the service. The interment was at Roberts Corners. She was 34 year of age and leaves a husband, a little daughter of four years, an aged father, Rev. George Adams, and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Carpenter of Clinton and Mrs. Elfa Wallace.

—We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved wife, daughter and sister, and for the beautiful flowers furnished in such abundance; and for the attendance in a body of the nine young girls belonging to her Sabbath school class.
