

[Whyland, Alice]

MRS. ALICE WHYLAND

Dolgeville—Mrs. Alice Whyland, 92, a resident of Dolgeville for more than 50 years, died Mar. 15, 1951 in her home, 78 Van Buren St.

She was born May 12, 1858, in Minden and came to Dolgeville in 1891. Her marriage to Charles Whyland took place in 1875. Mr. Whyland died several years ago.

Mrs. Whyland was a member of the Universalist Church and Rising Crown Rebekah Lodge.

Surviving are two sons, Clinton Whyland, Dolgeville; Fred, Syracuse; a daughter, Mrs. Mary J. Stone, Dolgeville; four grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be at 1 Saturday from the home with the Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton, retired Universalist minister, officiating. Burial will be in Mount Hope Cemetery, Fords Bush, in the Spring.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Fri. 16 Mar 1951

Transcribed on 15 Feb 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY