Eugene Whyland

Ready to leave his home for work, lunch box in hand, Eugene Whyland, 58, was suddenly stricken with a heart ailment and died in a few minutes at his home in Syracuse on Friday.

Mr. Whyland was born in Fort Plain, a son of the late George and Ellen Fero Whyland. He was one of the first mail carriers in Fort Plain.

Besides his widow, who was Miss Laura Shults of Fort Plain, he is survived by one son, Richard, Syracuse; and one sister, Miss Eleanor Whyland. The body was brought to Fort Plain Monday morning and funeral services were held at the Catharine Nellis Memorial chapel Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Gustav Ulrich, pastor of the Fort Plain Universalist church, officiating. The bearers were members of Fort Plain Lodge No. 433, F. and A. M. Interment was made in the Fort Plain cemetery.

Among those from out of town attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Doyle of Oneida and Frank Perkins of Baldwinsville. Mr. Whyland was a cousin of Mrs. Margaret Yerdon and Mrs. Francis Miller of Fort Plain.
