

[Wick, Maggie Miller]

Mrs. Maggie Wick

Mrs. Maggie Wick, aged 67 years, widow of Charles E. Wick, died at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cranker, following an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Wick was a well known and respected resident of this village and had a large number of friends. She was a charter member of the Pythian Sisters lodge of Fort Plain, and a member of the Universalist church. She took an active interest in both the lodge and church and will be missed in both societies. She was born at Freysbush and her entire life was spent in this village and town. The survivors are one brother, Byron C. Miller, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, both of Fort Plain. The funeral was held Tuesday at the Catharine Nellis Memorial chapel and was conducted by the Pythian Sisters lodge. Rev. H. [Herbert] F. Moulton, D.D., pastor of the Universalist church, officiated. Interment in the Fort Plain cemetery.
