

[Wilcox, Carlos H.]

Cohocton.

Mr. Carlos H. Wilcox died last Monday at the home of his brother, M. H. Wilcox. His death was caused by consumption. His funeral was held Wednesday from the Universalist church. The G. A. R. and Masons both attended in a body, the funeral being held with masonic ceremonies. Interment in McDowell cemetery. Mr. Wilcox leaves two sons, H. H. and Albert, of Hornellsville, an aged mother, two sisters and three brothers. Mr. Wilcox was liked and respected by all.

C. O. G.

Evening Tribune, Hornellsville NY, Wed. 12 Jun 1895

Cohocton.

Carlos H. Wilcox, a veteran of the late war, died at the residence of his brother, M. H. Wilcox, of consumption, last week Monday. He was granted and received a pension of $8 per month since November, 1894. His age was 55. He leaves three brothers—A. H., L. H. and M. H., and two sisters—Mrs. O. Johnson and Miss Alice Wilcox. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, Rev. H. [Herbert] P. Morrell [Universalist], assisted by Liberty Lodge F. & A. M., officiating. His wife and children are in Hornellsville.

June 4, 1895.

Naples Record, Naples NY, Wed. 12 Jun 1895