

[Williams, Emma L. Selwood]

Funeral of Mrs. Williams

Committal services were held Friday afternoon in Fort Plain Cemetery for Mrs. Emma L. Williams, 87, a native of Fort Plain and a resident of Manhasset, L. I., who died Wednesday, with Rev. James Alcock, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating.

Burial was made in the Diefendorf plot in Fort Plain Cemetery, where Mrs. Williams' first husband, Bowen Diefendorf, is buried.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Pauline Wittschiede and Mrs. Marjorie D. Ruggles; a son, Stanley B. Diefendorf, all of Manhasset, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Z. [Sarah] Brandow, of Fort Plain. Mrs. Williams was born in Fort Plain and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sellwood [Richard and Mary Ann Isles Selwood].

Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Mon. 22 Nov 1954

Transcribed on 15 Nov 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY