

[Williams, Hiram]

Bridgewater

—Hiram Williams, eldest son of the late Orrin Williams, died at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Banes, in this village last Wednesday. His remains were taken to Helmer's undertaking rooms, and the funeral was held from there Friday morning, conducted by the Rev. G [George] F. Babbitt [Universalist]. He was buried in the village cemetery. Mr. Williams was a veteran of the Civil war, being a member of Co. F, 15th Artillery. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. David Young of Oneida, Mrs. Eva Seiffert and Mrs. Sarah Cobb; a granddaughter, Mrs. Nettie Wicks, all living near here.
