Corp. John H. Williams Dies After Operation

Waterville, July 25—Word has been received that Corporal John H. Williams, 20, so of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams of Sangerfield, died Wednesday in the Air Corps Hospital at Rantoul, Ill., following an appendectomy. Corporal Williams was born in Utica and attended the Bridgewater and Waterville schools before enlisting in the army in 1939. He was a member of the Silver Wings Flying Club where he took flying lessons at his own expense and became a pilot. He was also a member of the Universalist Church at Bridgewater. Surviving besides his parents are a brother, Charles, of Sangerfield, and an aunt, Mrs. Edward G. Roberts of New Hartford.
