

[Williams, Orrin]

BRIDGEWATER

—Orrin Williams died at his late residence on Academy street last Tuesday morning. Mr. Williams had reached the advanced age of 92 years. He was a stone mason by trade and there is hardly a basement or chimney in this vicinity that was not put up by him. For the past ten years he has not done much work owing to physical unfitness but his mind stayed by him to a remarkable degree. He leaves a widow and six children. It is said that he has 75 living descendants consisting of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. His funeral was held from the Universalist church Thursday afternoon, Rev. D. Ballou officiating. The four Burns brothers, his grandchildren, acted as bearers.

Brookfield Courier, Brookfield NY, Wed. 26 Oct 1898

Transcribed on 21 Feb 2010 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY