W. A. WILLIAMS DIES

Southold, L.I., March 21—William A. Williams died at his home Saturday afternoon. Mr. Williams, who was nearly 75 years of age, was born in New York City, but early in life purchased a farm between Peconic and Southold, and also established a store which he continued there many years. A few years ago, with his son, William L., he established a dry-goods and furnishings store in Southold. About 50 years ago he married Miss Sarah Booth, who survives him. He was prominent in church affairs and has for many years been a member of the Universalist Church and one of its trustees. Besides his wife he is survived by the following children: William L. Williams and Mrs. Harry Howell of Southold, Mrs. J. Addison Baker, Mrs. Frank Young, Miss Mary Williams and Mrs. Herbert Wells of Peconic; Mrs. Thomas Stacy of New Jersey and Miss Nellie Williams of New York. Funeral services will be held at the late residence Tuesday afternoon.
