

[Williamson, George]

GEORGE WILLIAMSON

George Williamson, aged 75 years, a resident here for many years, died at the Strong Memorial hospital, Rochester, April 17, where he had been a patient for the past two months. Mr. Williamson had been living with his children in Rochester the past year and a half, having made his home here with his son Orville up to that time, since the death of his wife in 1908.

The body was brought to the home of Orville Williamson and family, 43 Benedict street, where funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, April 19 at 2:30, Rev. J.A. Judge [Universalist] officiating. Interment was in Hope cemetery. He is survived by five children, Mrs. Nellie Whitehead, Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan, and Ted Williamson, all of Rochester; Roscoe of New York City and Orville here. There are also nine grandchildren and an aged sister, Mrs. John Waters of Avoca. All of the children excepting Roscoe were here at the funeral.
