

[Willis, Cora A. Bolton]

Death of Mrs. Everett Willis.

Mrs. Everett Willis died at her home on Watrous street in this village last Saturday night, after a brief illness, aged 64 years.

Cora A. Bolton was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jasper M. Bolton and was born in the town of Leicester on Feb. 19th, 1855. She was one of a family of five children—three sons and two daughters, two of whom—James and Margaret—died in childhood¹.

In June, 1905, she was united in marriage to Everett E. Willis of Perry, who survives her, together with two brothers—Platt S. and Oscar N. Bolton, both of Perry.

The deceased was a woman of fine character, but unassuming manner, and was held in esteem by all who knew her. She was a member of the Universalist Church of Perry.

Funeral services were held at the family residence on Watrous street at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Clara Morgan, with interment at Hope Cemetery.
