

[Willmarth, Emily Beulah Arnold]

In Monticello at the residence of her son-in-law, Orville Jacobson, February 3rd, 1893, Mrs. Emily B., widow of the late Joseph Willmarth in the 81st year of her age.

Mrs. Willmarth's maiden name was Arnold. She was born in Fairfield, Herkimer County and was the last survivor of a family of eleven children. In the early years of their married life, Mr. and Mrs. Willmarth established a home in the Town of Exeter about two miles southwest of Monticello where the family continued to reside for more than forty years. Five daughters gladdened the home, four of whom survive the death of their parents, and whose privilege it was to be with their mother during her last sickness and with watchful care and loving tenderness to minister to her comfort. And never did a mother have more faithful attention. The deceased possessed an amiable disposition, a well established character and uniform kindness of heart. These estimable qualities won for her the enduring love of her family and the entire neighborhood where she passed so many years and where most of her life's work was accomplished. She was a member of the Richfield Springs Universalist church. Her funeral services were largely attended.

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 9 Feb 1893

Transcribed on 16 Jan 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY