

[Wilmot, Flora A. Forsyth]

CROSSES THE RIVER

A Good Woman, After a Brief Illness, Was Called to Her Home Beyond

Flora A., wife of George Wilmot of Wellsville, was called by the Angel of Death at the family home, Sunday, after an illness of only three days, apoplexy being the disease. Funeral services, attended by a large number of friends and relatives, were held from the Universalist church at this place, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. James Herrick officiating. Interment was made in Rural Cemetery.

Mrs. Wilmot was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Forsyth and was born near this place, January 12, 1850. Her first husband was Edwin Fish. One son, Charles B. Fish of Buffalo, survives. In 1889, she became the wife of George Wilmot and he with one son, William, survive her. She leaves, also, one brother and two sisters to mourn her death, George Forsyth of this place, Mrs. Rena Hall of Marion, Ind., and Mrs. Anna Parker, of Detroit, Mich.

She was a good woman, always kind and faithful to her family and to her friends, and their sorrow is deep.

Those from a distance who were in attendance at the last sad rites, were Charles B. Fish, of Buffalo; Farnham Gee, Erwin Lee, Renzo Wilson, Carl Moses and Mrs. Ona Williams of Wellsville, Hon. and Mrs. A. [Alvin] C. Barney of West Union and Melvin Minges of Hallsport.

Whitesville News, Whitesville NY, Thu. 15 Jul 1909

Transcribed on 15 Aug 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY