

[Wilson, Edith Benson]

SERVICES TODAY FOR MRS. WILSON, 91, OF POTSDAM

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 p. m. for Mrs. Edith B. Wilson, 91, 10 Cherry St., Potsdam, who passed away Monday in the Gillette Nursing Home, DeKalb Jct. The Rev. William Caldwell, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Potsdam, will officiate.

Mrs. Wilson was born in Potsdam Nov. 26, 1870, a daughter of Norman L. and Sarah Perry Benson. She lived in Potsdam all of her life.

On Dec. 22, 1893, she was married to Archie L. Wilson. Mr. Wilson died May 1, 1926.

She was a member of the Crary Mills Grange for 43 years and a past member of the [former] Universalist Church of Potsdam. Also, she was a member of the Rebekah's.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Earl (Marion) Aldous, Potsdam, and Mrs. Glenn (Maude) Sheldon, Lisbon; one son, Earl, Norristown, Penn.; four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren, also several nieces and nephews.

The Crary Mills Grange held a prayer service at the Seymour Funeral Home Wednesday evening at 8 p. m.

Interment will be in the Crary Mills cemetery.

Courier and Freeman, Potsdam NY, Thu. 13 Jul 1961

Transcribed on 13 Jun 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY